

Do your students hate
writing lessons?

These engaging prompts have fun
themes and topics that will get your reluctant writers enjoying your lessons!

Narrative Writing
Fourth Grade

Name _____

Hunt for Treasure

Write a story using the pictures.

One day a young boy found a treasure map in a trunk. It was in the attic. He decided to go looking for treasure!

He went everywhere and dug for hours and hours until he found a big treasure chest.

When he found it, he opened it up and was amazed. There were gold coins and diamonds inside.

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.4.3
Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective techniques. Orient the reader, organize an event sequence, and use dialogue and descriptive concrete words and phrases, and provide a conclusion.

Terrific Teaching Tactics 2021

Are you time poor?

Are you sick of spending your evenings and weekends prepping for your writing lessons?

Are you exhausted from hours of searching on Google, Pinterest, or TPT
for writing prompts?

Well, no more!

Name _____

Narrative Writing
Fourth Grade

My Birthday

Write about your birthday:

my birthday was on Saturday and I turned seven! It was a great day
because all of my friends and family came to my house for a BBQ!

CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.4.3
Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences. Orient the reader, organize an event sequence, and use dialogue and description. Use transitional words and phrases, concrete words and phrases, and provide a conclusion.

©AlexandraBaxter2020

These worksheets are perfect for -

- Whole group writing lessons
- Small group work (literacy and writing centers)
- Independent writing practice
- Early finishers
- Morning work
- Homework
- Assessment

What other teachers have to say -

"This was great to use as a writing center. It provided the scaffolding needed to make my students successful."

- Ashley R.

"This was a fantastic resource! Very helpful for parents who wanted extra writing practice at home."

- Cassi D.

Narrative writing
Fourth Grade

Name _____

First _____

Then _____

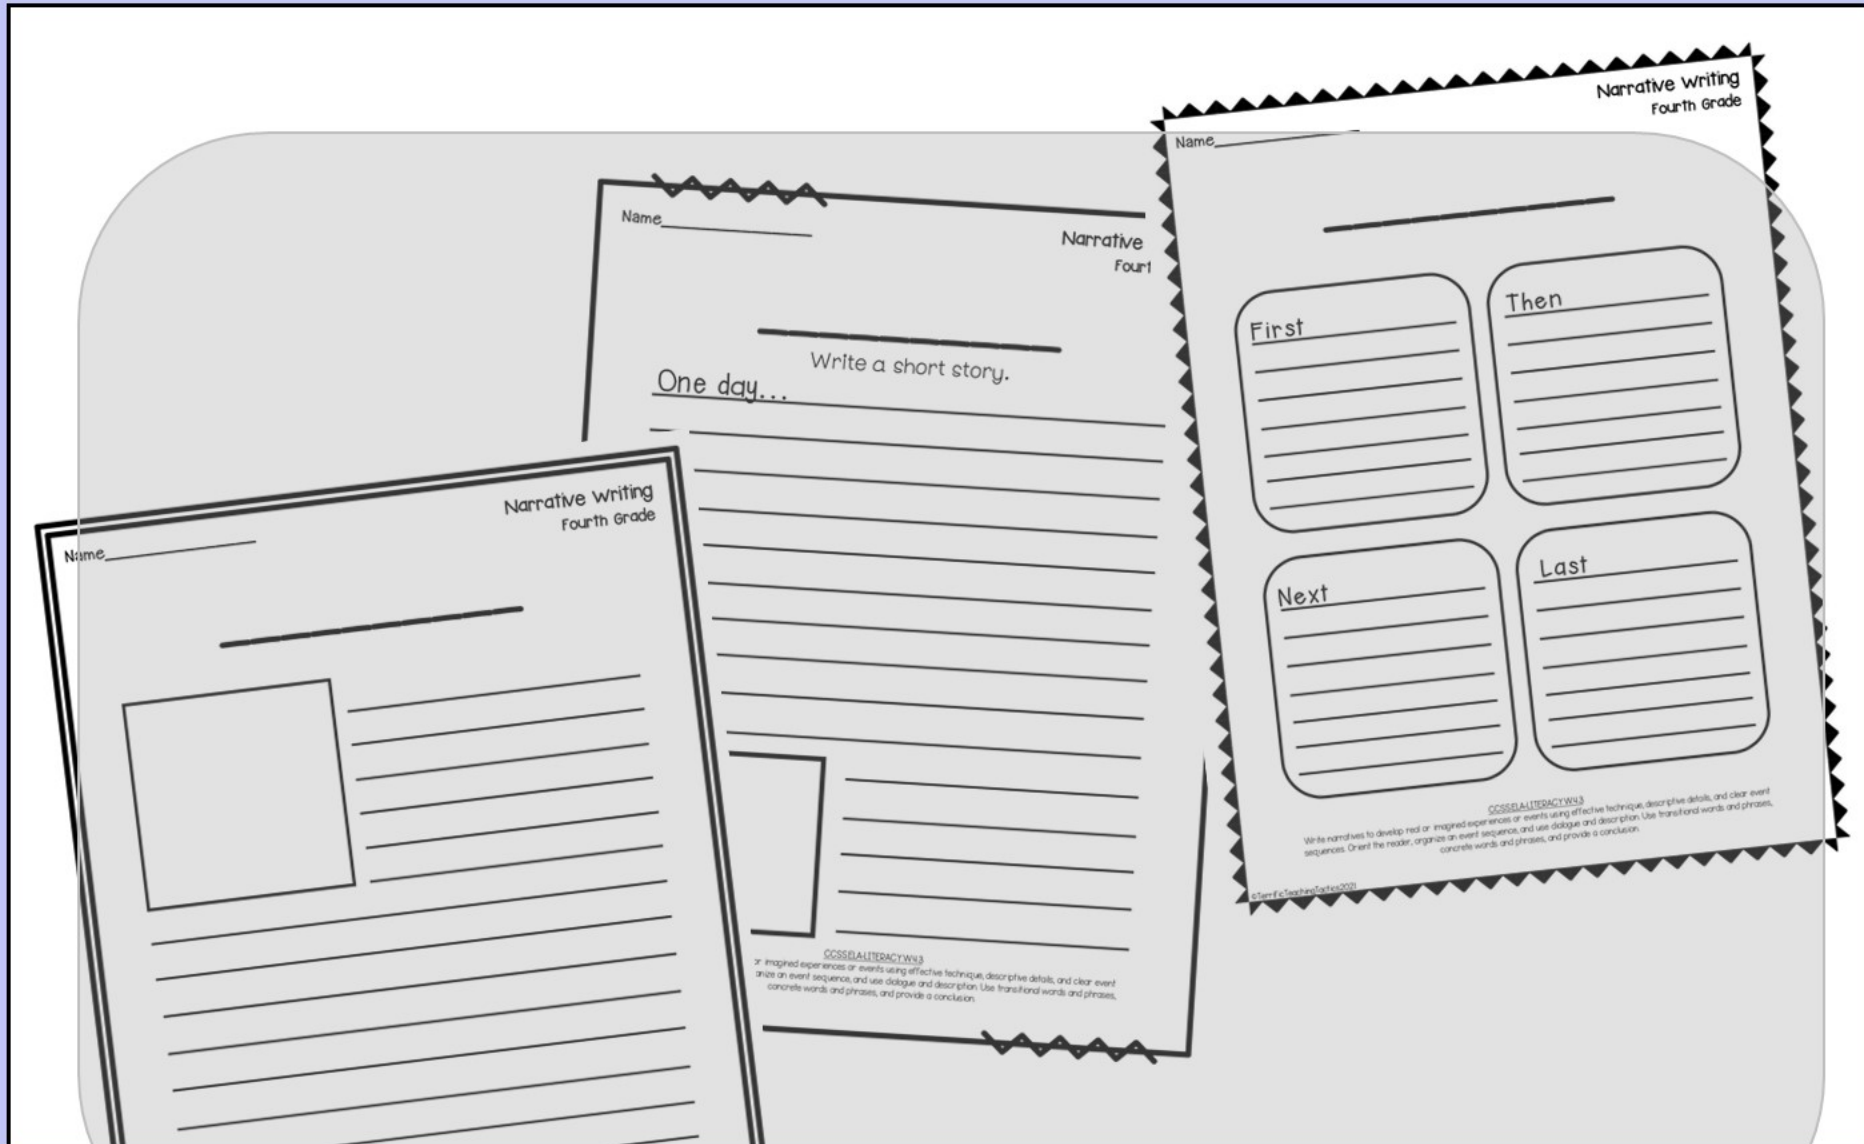

Next _____

Last _____

Narrative writing
Fourth Grade

Name _____

Each resource has 5 different worksheet styles!

Blank templates are included for each resource!