to make your writing
lessons more engaging?

These fun writing crafts will get your reluctant writers enjoying your lessons!

Johnny Appleseed

John Chapman was known as Johnny Appleseed. He was a pioneer who planted apple trees. He was born in 1774.
He was a legend because he was kind and generous!

Perhaps you love doing fun holiday and seasonal crafts with your students ...but you HATE the prep beforehand, chaos during, and clean-up afterwards!

These crafts are
NO PREP, NO STRESS, AND NO MESS!

How To Be Kind

There are lots of ways to be kind. First, you should help someone when they are hurt or sad. A smile or hug could make them feel better. Next, you should say nice things and let others play.

What other teachers have to say -

"We used these writing templates for Johnny Appleseed Day and aligned them with a Leadership prompt for Leader in Me and it was perfect. My student's loved getting to learn about Johnny Appleseed and loved the image of him they got to color." – Little Miss Sunshine

"This was a fun writing activity for Johnny Appleseed Day!"
– Juli M.
