

Are you looking for a hands-on and engaging
way to teach grammar?

Many students
find grammar
lessons boring, so why not make them FUN
instead?!

There are 7
exciting centers
for students to explore.

Students complete noun sorts (common vs. proper, singular vs. plural, or sorting by person, place, animal, and thing).

Noun Sentences

Look at the pictures and write sentences using the nouns.

- 1.) The thief stole a sheep from the forest.
- 2.) The vet ate peanuts at school.
- 3.) I saw a clown with
- 4.)
- 5.)
- 6.)

Find The Noun

Read the sentence strips and find the nouns. Write down the nouns that you find below.

1	2	3 hero	4 queen
5	6 barn	7 space	8
9 whale	10	11	12 cat
13 jet	14 bed	15	16

The barn is very big.

Students work on reading and writing too.
They write sentences with nouns and then read sentences and find the nouns.

*"This was a wonderful resource.
It covered all noun topics and kept my students engaged. I used them as centers and rotated my kids through them. It worked out really well."*

- Cassie C.

"I used this as extra grammar activities for my students to become more familiar with nouns and plural nouns. They enjoyed all of them!"

- 2nd grade teacher
