

Are you looking for a way to make your writing lessons more engaging?

These fun writing crafts will get your reluctant writers enjoying your lessons!

Columbus Day is...

on the 12th of October. It celebrates the anniversary of Christopher Columbus' arrival in America in 1492. Christopher Columbus was an explorer. He set sail across the Atlantic Ocean and discovered the new world!

Perhaps you love doing fun holiday and seasonal crafts with your students ...but you HATE the prep beforehand, chaos during, and clean-up afterwards!

These crafts are
NO PREP, NO STRESS, AND NO MESS!

The best Halloween treat

I think that the best Halloween treat is candy corn! First, it is yummy and has lots of sugar. Also, I like it because it is orange in the middle - my favorite color!

What other teachers have to say -

"This is a great writing craft activity to work on during centers!"
- Paige R.

"These were cute and great for hallway displays."
- Katie M.

Create a gorgeous display!

These crafts are perfect for –

- Bulletin boards
- Door decor
- Writing lessons
- Writing centers
- Early finishers
- Morning work
- Homework
- Last minute sub plans

If I were the teacher

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are five sets of these lines for writing practice.

If I were the teacher

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are five sets of these lines for writing practice.

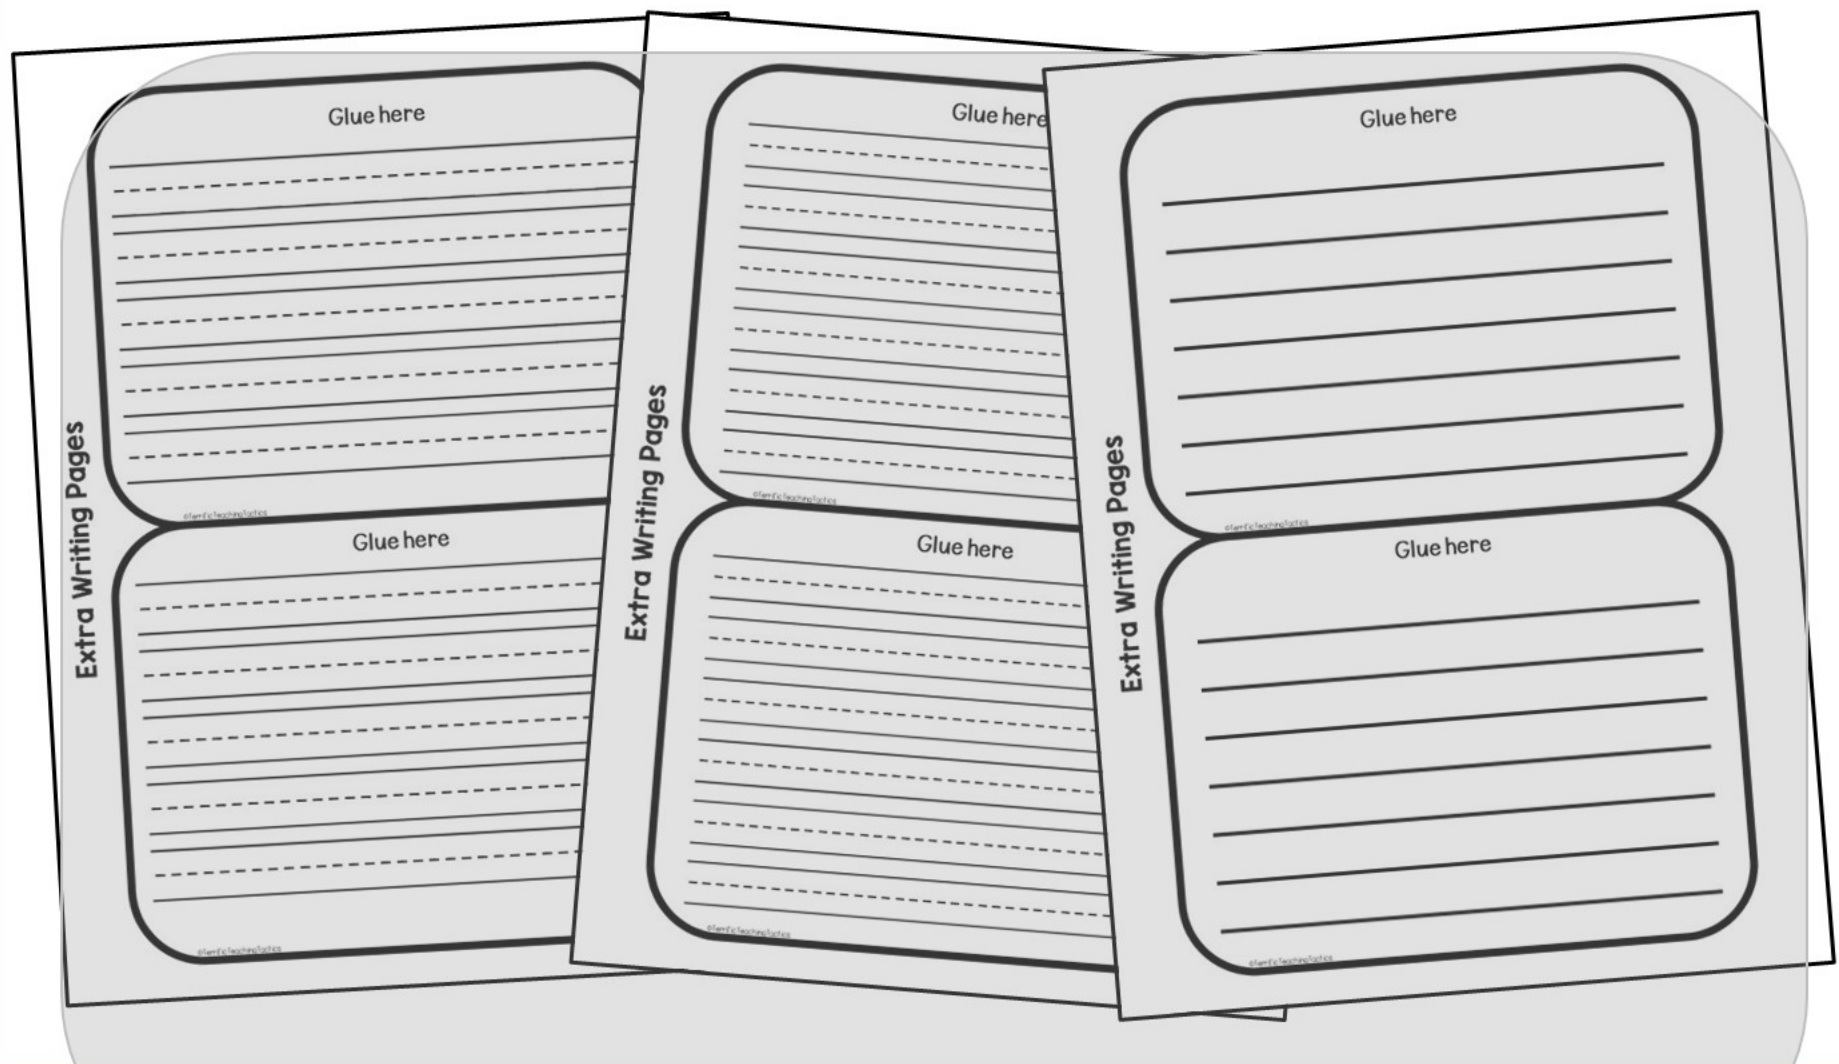

If I were the teacher...

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. There are five sets of these lines for writing practice.

There are three choices of lines.

Each craft comes in color and black and white.

Extra lined writing pages are included.