

There's nothing worse than purchasing writing prompts and not being able to use them when you change grade levels.

It's also frustrating when there's only a few prompts included or there's no differentiation.

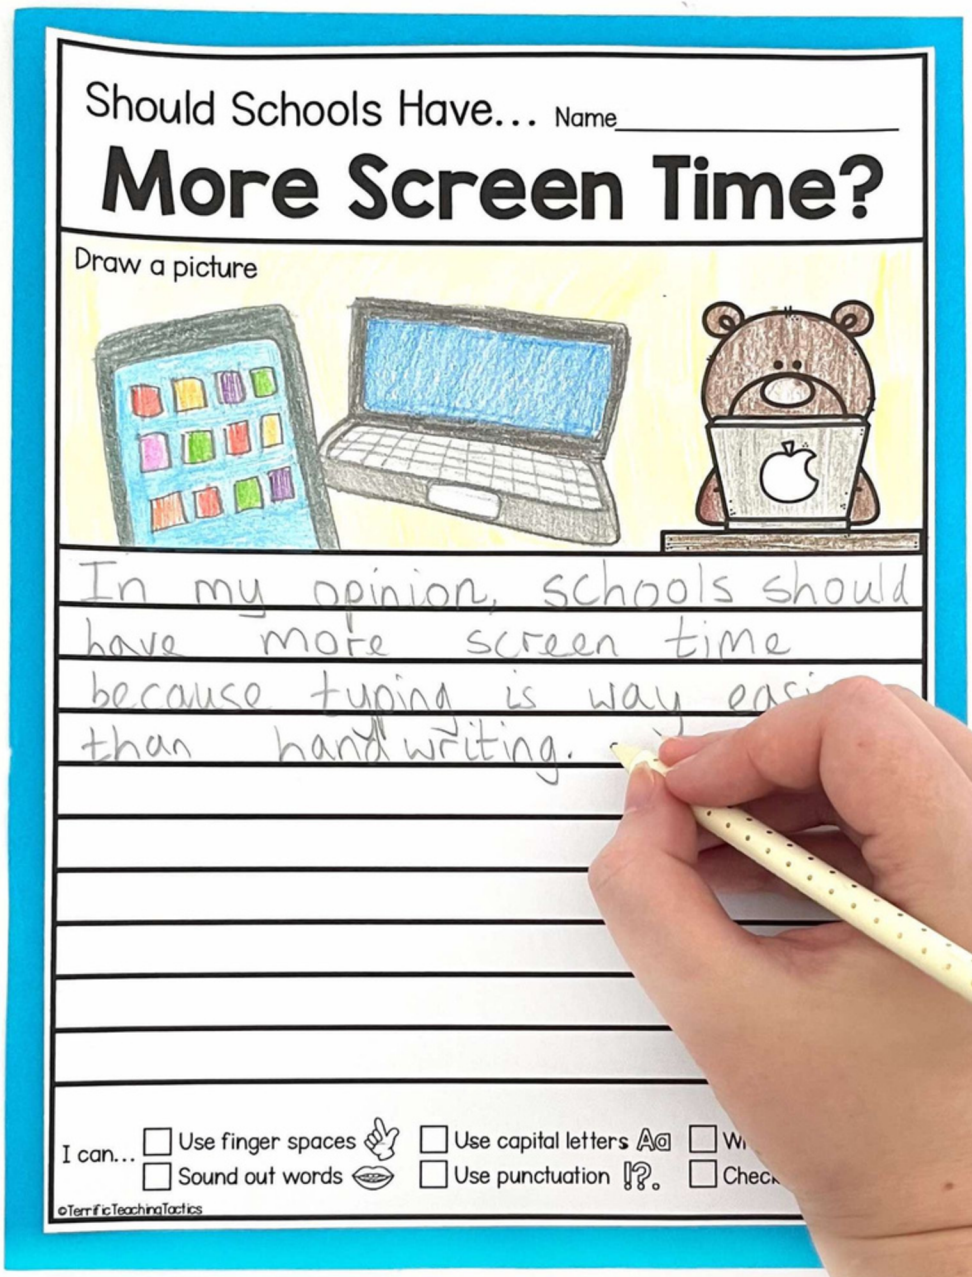

That's why there are 50 prompts in this resource!

Best of all? The prompts come in 12 versions, so that you can differentiate for your students AND still use them if you change grade levels!

These prompts include space to draw and even a writing checklist.

The prompts are fun and interesting for students with a variety of prompts included:

- Which is better...
- The best...
- Would you rather...
- Do you prefer...
- My favorite...
- Should...

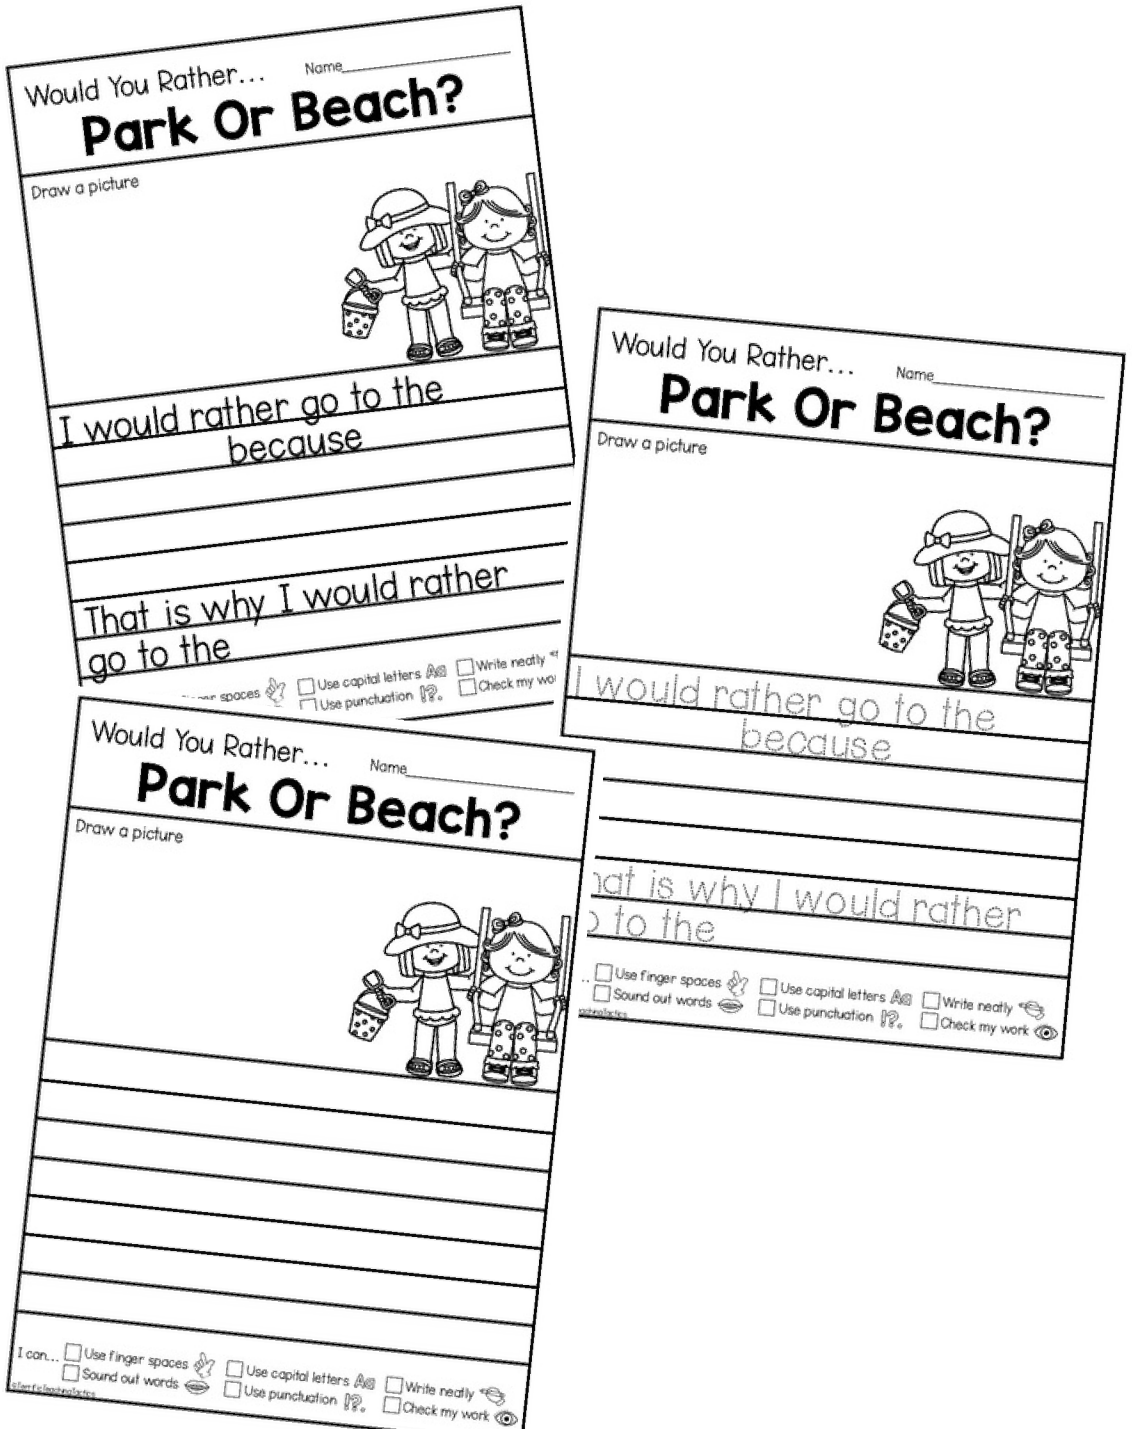

7 different planning page options are included, so that you can choose how many reasons your students will provide.

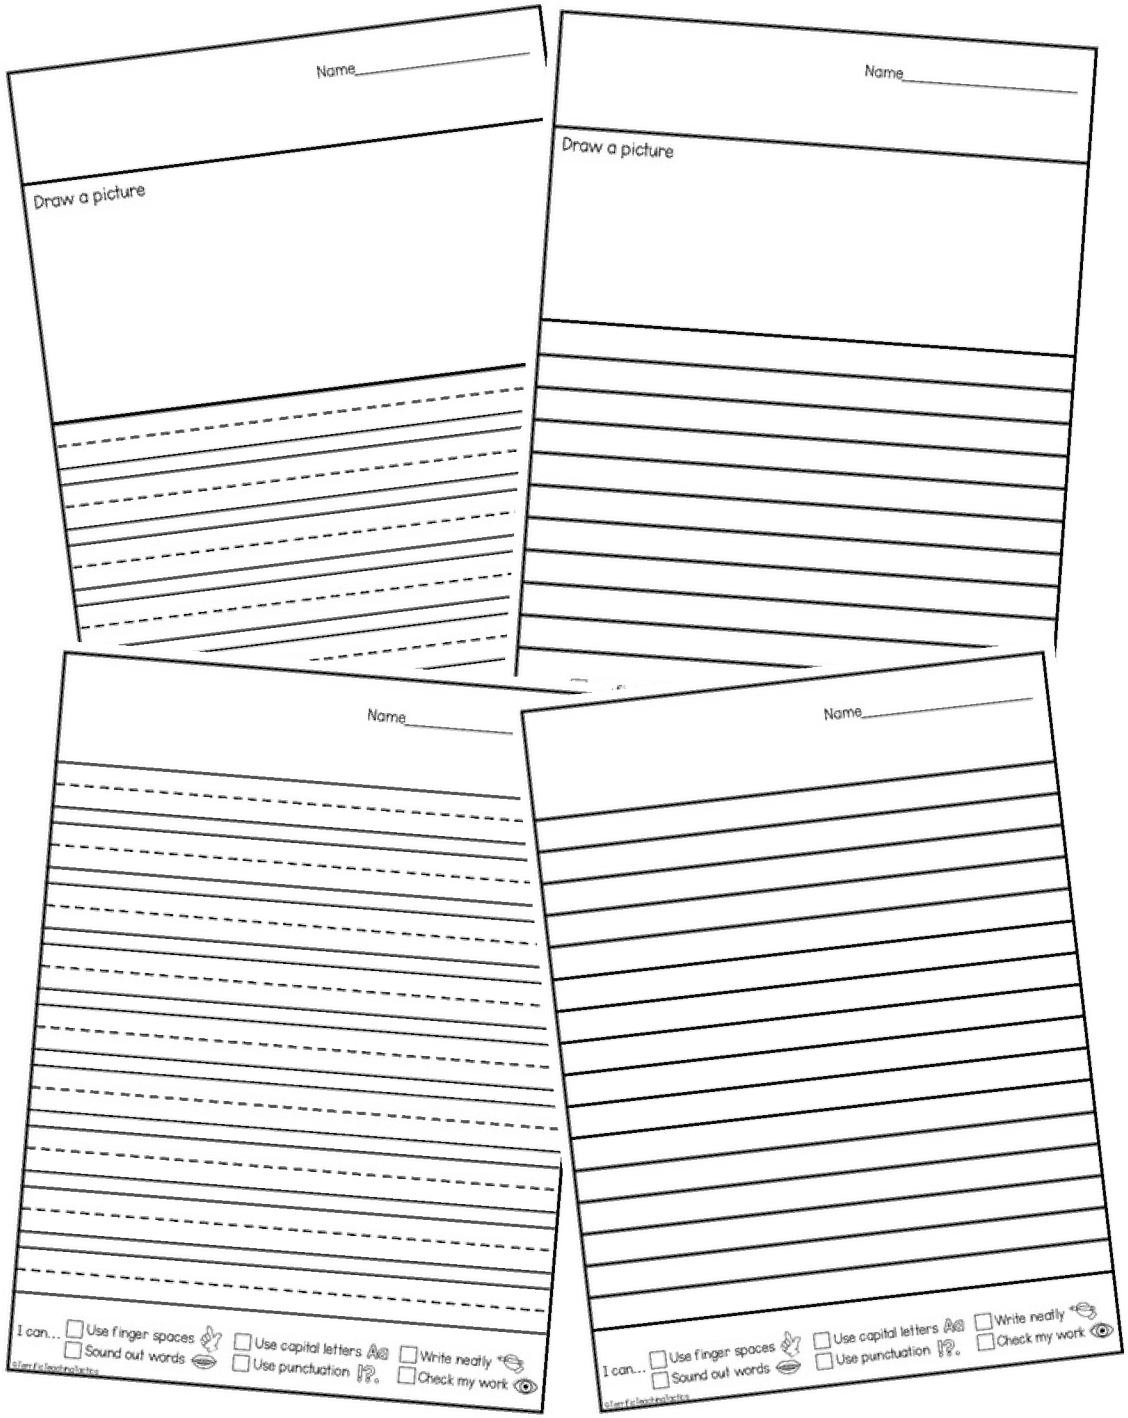

There are 4 line styles to choose from for each prompt:

- 4 dotted lines
- 5 dotted lines
- 7 plain lines
- 10 plain lines

Each line style comes in 3 versions (with and without scaffolding):

- Sentence frames
- Dotted sentence frames (for tracing)
- Blank lines

There are blank templates in case you want to write your own prompt.

There's also extra lined pages for students who want to write more.

With over 50 prompts, you have choice and variety for your whole group opinion writing lessons. But best of all, this could be a whole year's worth of morning work, writing centers, homework, or early finishers!

Grab these engaging prompts today. Your students will have so much fun, they'll forget they are learning! They'll be EXCITED to share their opinions!
